End of days lyrics

Do you like this song? (click stars to rate) [Intro] The biggest form of control is when you think you're free when you're fundamentally manipulated and dictated. One form of dictatorship is to be in a jail cell and you can see the bars and touch it. The other one sits in a jail cell, but you can't see the bars, but you think you're free. What the human race suffers from is mass hypnosis. We are hypnotized by people like these: newsmen, politicians, teachers, lecturers. We are in a country and in a world run by incredibly sick people. The chasm between what we've been told is going on and what's really going on is absolutely enormous. [Choir: Block McCloud] It's like we all know what goes down But no one says shit, what happened to the house of the brave? These mothers they now control us but no one talks about it, we have pride in being slaves and everyone is just walking around head in the clouds, we won't wake up until we're dead in the grave by then it's too late, we've got to be ready to erect welcome at the end of days [Verse 1: Vinnie Paz] Everyone is slaves, just a few are aware that the government is releasing poison into the air This is why I collect so many guns in my lair I'm not caught slipping, never underprepared yes. The Shaitan army, they display it just proudly George Bush the grandson of Aleister Crowley They want you to believe the lie that enemy Saudi Arabia, the enemy around me There is fluoride in the water, but no one knows that it is also a prominent ingredient in Prozac (for real?) How can any government donate it? A proud people who believe in political throwbacks That's not all I'm here to offer you I know about the black pope in Solomon's Temple yes, about the Vatican assassins and how they'll get you and how they cloned Barack Hussein Obama in a test tube [Choir] [Verse 2: Vinnie Paz] Whoever built the pyramids has knowledge of electric power and you know that's the information they oppress and devour Who you think the mothers who crashed into tow? Who you think it turned it into ashes late within an hour? The same people who invaded Jerome Those who never told you about the skeletons on the moon yes, the ones that consumed all the foods you consumed Those who never told you about Mount Vesuvius Tomb The Bird Flu is a lie, the Swine Flu is a lie Why would it even come as a surprise? Yes, the Polio vaccine made you die It caused cancer and it cost many people their lives Do y'all know about Bohemian Grove? How does the world leader sacrifice children in clothes? Lucifer is God in the public school system I suggest you open your ears and you listen [Choir] [Outro] The greatest hypnotist on planet Earth is an oblong box in the corner of the room. It constantly tells us what to believe is real. If you can persuade people that what they see with their eyes is what's there see that you have They. Because they'll laugh in your face of an explanation then what depicts the big picture of what's happening... and they did. This song is from the album Season of the Assassin.
